

Welcome to The Toro Company's LinkedIn page. Our goal is to create a positive experience for the community. We encourage open conversation, and expect you to follow LinkedIn Professional Community Policies – along with these Community Guidelines – to maintain a friendly environment for everyone. If individuals are not respectful, constructive or relevant, we reserve the right to delete comments from public view or block individuals from commenting on the page.

Community Guidelines

- Be respectful of others. This includes using appropriate language that is not profane, discriminatory, defamatory, obscene, vulgar, or otherwise objectionable. It also includes comments that could be construed as harassing the community or the people who follow this page, including but not limited to, repeatedly commenting with similar messages, trolling or sharing misinformation. Content of this nature will be deleted and anyone with repeated violations will be blocked from commenting on the page.
- Keep it relevant. Please keep comments relevant to The Toro Company and content being shared. Comments promoting other businesses, products or services will be removed.
- If you require immediate attention regarding a product-related issue, please contact our Customer Care team at toro.customercare@toro.com or 888-384-9939.
